1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Jim Gehrig, staff member, Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation Subcommittee on Science, Technology and Space. He asked whether clearances have been granted yet for John Gilman Stewart, Subcommittee Counsel. After checking with [REDACTED] OLC, I called Gehrig back and told him that the request for clearances for Stewart had been submitted on an expedite basis and that as soon as we receive them we would call him and let him know. He thanked me for this information.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Hilda Schreiber, OMB, who asked if the Director had signed the letter giving the Agency's comments on the pending proposal with the Domestic Council to strike mandatory age requirements from Federal retirement programs. I told her that he had not yet signed it but that we were expediting it and hoped to have it to her within the next several days.

6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Per his earlier request, I mailed a copy of the 1977 National Basic Intelligence Factbook to Peter Fenn, in the office of Senator Frank Church (D., Idaho).

7. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION George Gilbert, OMB, called and asked us to send over our electronic surveillance bill testimony as soon as possible so that it can be coordinated within the Executive Branch. I told him we would get it to him as soon as possible.

25X1

8. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Talked to Dr. Frank, House International Relations Committee staff, who called to discuss the Senate version of the Derwinski amendment. He told me that the language was now circulating in a "Dear Colleagues" letter from Senators Henry Jackson (D., Wash.), Robert Griffin (R., Mich.), Alan Cranston (D., Calif.), Clifford Case (R., N. J.) and Claiborne Pell (D., R. I.). Apparently the budget report language was excised but there was still an ACDA report requirement on the number of personnel engaged in verification.

9. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Talked to Bob Turner, Legislative Assistant to Senator Robert Griffin (R., Mich.), who will provide us with the language of the proposed Senate version of the Derwinski amendment. He gave me the background on how the language was arrived at.

Turner called back later in the day with two questions: (1) What is the Agency's estimate of the range of the BACKFIRE bomber? and (2) What military changes have taken place in North Korea since 1974? After checking with George Cary and [REDACTED] CSS/DDI, I set up a briefing for Thursday, 9 June, at 11:00 a.m. He will be coming to Headquarters.

13.  HEARINGS Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) stopped me in the Capitol to tell me he was planning to hold hearings in the Senate Governmental Affairs Subcommittee on Permanent Investigations in the near future on the nature of terrorist activities, both internationally and domestically. He desires to have the Agency participate in these hearings. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

14.  LIAISON I spoke with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, about Chairman Daniel Inouye's (D., Hawaii) conversation with the Director yesterday regarding Senator Ernest Hollings' (D., S. Car.) intention to add an amendment to the Defense Appropriations bill and following our hearings with the Senate Select Committee, the Director gave Miller a letter to the Chairman on this subject.

21. [REDACTED] LIAISON Apropos the DCI's addition to the statement on the Boyce-Lee case which I, late yesterday, called over to a secretary in the office of Senator Daniel P. Moynihan (D., N. Y.) for staffer Charles Horner, I checked with Horner who said he thought the whole statement probably would not be used. He promised to send us a copy of the speech if it is used.

23. [REDACTED] LIAISON Per her request, sent Mary Brady, of Representative Samuel Devine's (R., Ohio) office, a copy of the Agency publication, "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate."

24. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from John Chowat, in the office of Representative John B. Breckinridge (D., Ky.), requesting permission to insert in the Congressional Record the article written by Admiral Turner for the January issue of the Foreign Affairs Magazine. Mr. Chowat was asked to thank the Congressman for checking with us. I indicated that we had no problem with the article being placed in the Record as an Extension of Remarks.

25. [REDACTED] LIAISON Per her request, a copy of the Agency publication entitled "A Study of Climatology Research as it Pertains to Intelligence Problems," was forwarded to Kathy McCollom, in the office of Representative Max Baucus (D., Mont.).

27. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mary Loch, in the office of Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.), called stating that she is putting together some ideas for a speech for the Senator on U.S. - PRC relations and wanted some unclassified information on what has happened since Mao. I passed the request to [REDACTED] Congressional Support Officer, who will have someone call her.

28. [REDACTED] BRIEFING I spoke with Bob Dockery, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, regarding details of the briefing of Senator Paul Sarbanes (D., Md.) set for 10 June and to insure that no personal staffers will be present since we plan to get into the compartmented area.

29. [REDACTED] LIAISON Hans Binnendijk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called stating that he appreciated very much the briefing of 7 June on the balance of forces between North and South Korea and that the briefing was very impressive. He asked if we could supply the bargraph used at the briefing for inclusion in a classified memorandum which he planned to send to the members of the Committee. I said that since the graph was classified Secret, we would rather it not be included in his memorandum, but that we would forward it to the Committee and he could refer to it as being on file with the Committee and available for the members to read. The graph was forwarded by courier.

30. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC, to check on the status of the role of the Ambassador problem. He said he had not seen any proposals from the State Department on this as yet but that it should go through him if and when it comes in. I advised Eloise Page, DDO, of this and she said that the new agreement with the State Department was being handled by David Aarons, NSC, and that perhaps Hoskinson would not be in the loop on this matter. I suggested she call Hoskinson and pass this on to him.

25X1

31. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Called Ron Lehman, in the office of Senator Dewey F. Bartlett (R., Okla.), to refine the Senator's request with respect to the briefing on Soviet civil defense measures. Basically, the Senator is interested in the effectiveness of the measures being taken by the Soviets. I told him that this area was still under study and that we had not come to any conclusions at this time and felt we could not properly brief the Senator on this until a later date. Lehman asked that we brief the Senator anyway, if nothing more than to outline to him what questions and issues are currently under study. I told him I would see what we could do and get back to him.
